Egyptian military usage - Condition "mixed", but virtually all have return addresses

389	1939, small plain cover Arabic-addressed to Cairo, no stamps but large black double-ring oval of 3rd Battery Artillery "franking" the letter at top right. Oval overlies faint Marsa Matrouh CDS. On reverse poor but legible Alexandria-Marsa Matrouh / & VV tpo mark (Smith Type 7A3.5, recorded only for 1936) and Ezbet el Zaitoun arrival for 17 NO 1939. Quite remarkable	[ILLUSTRATED]	£35.00
390	1939, much as last, but Battery marking much less clear and Marsa Matrouh clear of oval (29 OC 39). Poor reverse markings include Cairo Station		£18.00
391	1936, much as last pair, but different oval marking, with Arabic above date in box. English reads No 4 Battery? Clear Ezbet el Zaitoun arrival behind is 25 NO 36	[ILLUSTRATED]	£24.00
392	1950-1973, accumulation of 15 often very scruffy military-connected covers, only two with stamps but all endorsed in Arabic "soldier's post". All have military postal markings or censor marks as well as civilian CDS. Interesting research lot for the specialist		£8.00
393	1955, small roughly opened cover with 35m plus 2x5m Second Fellah to pay for Reg and AR from faint Cairo CDS. Arrival mark is large and full strike of elusive R / Moascar El Arish (ie, El Arish Camp) of 22 OC 55 on face	[ILLUSTRATED]	£10.00
394	1956, small barid harby Arabic-addressed cover cancelled clear Asyut with unusual CDS alongside of Moascar Ash...(?). Reverse has two strikes of large Poste Militaire / Trafic du Caire with hexagonal military mark No 13. Contents remain. Fragile but fascinating		£6.00
395	1960, Arabic-addressed small cover with small hexagonal and rectangular military markings on face with triangular military censor and officer's initials and Alex machine cancel 20 2 60. Reverse has another military mark with poor Poste Militaire / Trafic du / Caire (small size, unusual)		£4.00
396	1961, Arabic addressed Air envelope with excellent triangular military censor 9559 and Cairo machine arrival on face (10 8 61) and good military marking (13 8 61) behind. Contents remain		£5.00
397	1963, barid harby Arabic-addressed Air envelope with single hexagonal military marking No 43 on face and Ganub el Qaherah machine arrival behind 13 8 63. Contents remain, clean		£4.00
398	1965, Arabic-addressed Air envelope, barid harby, with 10m Eagle of Saladin stamp cancelled Heliopolis / T 17 9 65 with triangular military censor 8171 on face and Alex machine arrival behind		£4.00
399	1965, Arabic-typed Air cover, barid harby, triangular violet military censor 8171 and officer's endorsement on face, various part-strikes behind. Contents remain		£4.00
400	1969, air mail env (some staining), barid harby, clear El Luqsor / Air Port of 15 12 69 and large hexagonal military mark with "1" above and officer's initials		£4.00
401	1969, pair of clean Air covers, barid harby, Arabic addressed to Qubba Gardens in different hands, one with violet double-arch censor 9647, other a damaged hexagonal mark. Various machine marks behind		£5.00
402	1974, clean Air cover, barid harby, Arabic-addressed, CDS illegible but officer's endorsement of violet double-arch military censor 9180 is dated 11 5 74. Cairo machine arrival 13 5 74		£6.00
403	(date?), small visiting-card cover Arabic addressed with diamond and triangular / 45 military markings and officer's initials. No CDS of any sort		£4.00

French On Active Service – same addressee

404	Printed Air cover from Paul Chiebaut, MDL Chef, 1st RAC, 1st Groupe to his wife in Heliopolis, endorsed "On Active Service", no stamp but cancelled blue Postes Aux (Armees?) 20 8 45. Backstamps of Cairo (machine) and Heliopolis 3 OC 45		£4.00
405	Air cover endorsed as last, but CDS Changis / Seine et Marne 8 10 45, Air label crossed through, and with large blue double-circle 1er R.A.C. – 1re D.F.L - 1er Groupe / Le Vaguemestre. Faint BS Heliopolis 28 NO(?) . Long letter "No 100" remains	[ILLUSTRATED]	£6.00
406	Air cover endorsed as last, with Changis CDS 1 10 45 and faint large violet handstamp alongside with 1er R.A. 1ere D.F.L. 1er Groupe – Remi le Capitaine Commdt around anchor/marlinspike. Cairo machine transit and Heliopolis arrival 27 NO 45. Long letter "No 95" remains		£5.00
407	Air cover endorsed as last, Changis CDS 3 10 45, faint anchor/spike handstamp similar to last but wording CRI le Capitaine Commdt instead of Remi le Capitaine. Cairo machine transit and Heliopolis arrival 27 and 28 NO. Short letter "No 99" enclosed		£5.00
