Interpostal on cover

- 483 Remnant of Assiut Interpostal Type V-b (Kehr 232) affixed to Post Office form No. 27, dated April 4 1878 from Assiut PO. It lists six letters found in the wrong delivery mail sack arriving from Alexandria. The form lists the origin and destination of each letter and is signed by the Assiut Post Office commissioner and struck with 'Post Khedivie Egiziane Siut' dated 6 April 1878 in blue. The letters in question should have been destined for England, Rome, Trieste, Corfu, Sira(?) and Paris. The torn Interpostal was the method of attachment of this form to the bundled misdirected items of mail. Extremely rare and a very fine item. Ex-Wolfsbauer, Dennis Clarke [ILLUSTRATED] £690.00
